Shana Tovah – it was wonderful to see you all during High Holidays.

I have many thank you's:

- Avrum and Eli – you are both such passionate, sincere and loving individuals and we are so deeply honoured and thankful for your participation this year. It has been very enjoyable to hear you both throughout – each of you bringing your own special personality and touch to each service. Thank you for making our High Holidays here at Habonim a powerful and moving experience. We hope that many more of our services will be led by you both
- Esther, Ilan, Larry and the choir for their beautiful music

- Dianne Erdos-Rush for helping supervise the children's service

BREAKFAST CLUB

On October 2 we had a fascinating insight into The Dreyfuss Affair, a shameful event in the history of France.

Barry Fluxgold brought the story to life by explaining the political background as well as the personal tragedy of the affair. Alfred Dreyfus got caught between the Royalists and the Republicans and became a handy scapegoat: the first Jew who dared to rise in the French military hierarchy to a high position.

His imprisonment in solitary confinement caused a rift in French society. His wife Lucie Hademar had pleaded with authorities, wrote letters to the Pope in Latin (no reply), and finally turned to the writer Emile Zola for help. Zola's article "J'ACCUSE" has eventually helped to reopen the case and free Dreyfuss.

The original trial was attended by a reporter from Vienna by the name Theodore Herzl. That injustice was the likely seed of Herzl's Der Judenstaat.

On November 6, Rabbi Moses Kirsh of Congregation Ohr Penimi will introduce us to another interesting subject: The Meaning and Energy of the Hebrew Alphabet.

Come to hear a fascinating topic and enjoy a hearty breakfast with your friends.

Sunday, November 6 – 10 a. m.

HABONIM KRISTALLNACHT LECTURE

The Life & Legacy of Simon Wiesenthal Z_L with
Dr. Efraim Zuroff

Director, Simon Wiesenthal Center, Jerusalem; coordinator, Nazi War Crimes Research, SWC, Israel

Dr. Efraim Zuroff is the world's foremost expert on the subject of Nazi War Criminals still at large. Dr. Zuroff was a personal acquaintance of Simon Wiesenthal and is considered the heir apparent to his life and legacy.

Simon Wiesenthal, a Holocaust survivor, tracked down scores of Nazi war-criminals following World War II, and spent much of his life fighting anti-Semitism and racism in general.

Simon Wiesenthal passed away at the age of 96 in September of 2005.

Thursday, November 10th, 2005 (Kristallnacht) 8:00 pm

The lecture will be preceded by a short memorial service marking the 67th anniversary of Kristallnacht, an event that was witnessed first hand by many of Habonim's founders.

Co-sponsored by Holocaust Education Week.

HABONIM'S 50-YEAR HISTORY BOOK

We are now reviving our too long dormant project, the book that the late Gangolf Herman commissioned Lisa-Catherine Cohen to write. It took her two years to research and author, and has resulted in an unwieldy 755 pages. The work has been saved in Canada's Jewish Archives.

There is a lot of work involved in the post-production of this special book: editing to a manageable length, book layout, consisting of design of text, cover, and photographs, and then the printing of the finished product.

The book includes stories of the founders and builders of the Congregation, our history in its dramatic, poignant and sometimes funny glory. It would be a real shame to let all this come to naught.

To this end, we are asking for your donations – big or small, all are welcome. The book will serve as a permanent record as well as a fitting tribute to the memory of loved ones, or to commemorate special occasions.

Please send all donations to the shul in care of Eli Rubenstein.
